

TRS, A PORTFOLIO COMPANY OF SAW MILL CAPITAL, COMPLETES ITS THIRD ACQUISITION IN 12 MONTHS

Dardanelle, Arkansas, October 16, 2006 – Terra Renewal Services, Inc. (“TRS”), a portfolio company of Saw Mill Capital LLC, announced today the acquisition of Envirovac, Inc. Based in Lufkin, Texas, Envirovac is involved in the collection and sale of used oil and grease, primarily from restaurants and commercial food processing facilities in the Southwestern United States. During the latest fiscal year Envirovac had revenues of over $9 million.

Envirovac represents TRS’ third acquisition in the last 12 months, and a strategic expansion into the collection of used oil and grease from commercial food establishments. TRS actively acquires companies that collect and recycle non-hazardous industrial, commercial and municipal liquid organic waste, dispose of grease trap waste, and/or collect, reprocess and recycle oil, brown and yellow grease.

Terra Renewal Services, Inc. (“TRS”) is a leading U.S. recycler of industrial, commercial and municipal wastewater residuals. On a recurring basis, TRS collects and hauls food processing and wastewater residuals and applies it for beneficial use as fertilizer on farmlands under environmental permits issued to the company. TRS also provides industrial and municipal lagoon and digester clean-out services, and used oil, yellow grease, brown grease and grease-trap collection, reprocessing and recycling services.
